How the Pupil Premium will be spent;

Summary of Spend

Objectives in spending PPF to contribute to the following:

- Ensure that our children's needs are met and that our provision ensures that children can 'achieve their best'
- Make sure that our children are happy and safe and have the best possible support for their needs – whatever their needs may be. To enrich their curriculum.
- Raise attainment and accelerate the progress of PP pupils in reading, writing and maths, ensuring that the gaps are closed between pupil groups.

Nature of Support

| Item/Project | Objective | Expected Impact | Outcome/Impact of Provision |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1:1 and small group TA support for pupils | To close the gap between identified pupils and their peers. To provide social and emotional support. | Academically, the gap to narrow between pupil and peers. For pupils to feel safe, secure and happy at school. To be settled in class and display high self-esteem. | To be completed at the end of the Academic Year. |
